About CAEL CE

The Canadian Academic English Language Test, Computer Edition (CAEL CE), is designed to measure the English language proficiency of individuals planning to study in Canadian post-secondary institutions and to become members of professional organizations.

CAEL CE is one of the best tools for identifying test takers with the right English skills for success. It provides an authentic representation of language use at an academic level. Test takers read articles, listen to lectures, answer questions, and write a short essay, as they would be expected to do in a first-year Canadian university or college classroom.

One of the unique features of CAEL CE is that it is an integrated, topic-based test. During the test, test takers use more than one skill to answer questions on unified topics. For example, test takers speak to respond to questions based on what they have read or listened to, and write responses based on a reading passage and mini-lecture.

The advantage of this approach is that it assesses a test taker's ability to synthesize information from a variety of sources. When writing in college, university, or professional context, individuals are often required to bring together information from a variety of sources such as statistics, online material, books, and journals.

The Trusted Canadian Test

CAEL CE is accepted by over 180 institutions across Canada for academic admission, as well as by several professional organizations for certification, including the Immigration Consultants of Canada Regulatory Council (ICCRC) For a complete list of accepting institutions and professional organizations, visit our website at cael.ca/who-accepts-cael-ce.

CAEL CE Test Format

CAEL CE assesses English language proficiency in an integrated context. Test takers receive scores for the Speaking, Listening, Reading, and Writing components, as well as an overall score.

The test includes activities that require comprehension skills employed by individuals engaging in post-secondary study. The topics and tasks in the test are taken from first-year university courses. Some of these tasks will require test takers to use what they have read and listened to in order to answer a question by speaking or writing their response.

CAEL CE is fully computer delivered, providing test takers the opportunity to complete all test components in one sitting. The total test time for CAEL CE is approximately 3.5 hours, and the test fee is $268 CAD + tax (international test fees may vary).

CAEL CE Scoring

The Reading and Listening components of CAEL CE are computer-scored. All the answers to CAEL Reading and Listening questions are scored dichotomously: a response is either correct or incorrect. Questions that are left blank are scored as incorrect.

The Speaking and Writing components are scored by Paragon's trained raters, using scoring criteria relevant to standards applied in Canadian academic contexts.

To rate the Speaking and Writing components of CAEL CE, raters use a variety of criteria specifically designed to assess academic speaking and academic writing. These criteria are:

- ✓ Completing the task: Whether test takers fulfill the requirements of the task
- ✓ Content of the response: How well test takers communicate their ideas or argument
- ✓ Vocabulary use: How well test takers' chosen words, idioms, and collocations convey their intended meaning
- ✓ Grammatical accuracy: Test takers' degree of mastery over linguistic patterns of English to clearly and precisely communicate their intended message
- ✓ Use of source materials: How well test takers use the information from the image, passage, or mini-lecture in their response
- ✓ Audience awareness and tone: Test takers' ability to set and maintain an appropriate tone throughout their response

CAEL CE Band Scores

After completing CAEL CE, test takers receive a score report that details individual English proficiency scores for the Speaking, Reading, Listening, and Writing components as well as an overall score. CAEL CE scores are reported on a scale from 10 to 90, with accompanying descriptors of what this performance represents. The overall score is calculated as an equally weighted average of the four component scores rounded to the nearest ten-point interval.

CAEL CE Score	CAEL CE Band Descriptor
80–90	Expert: Demonstrates a high level of competence, accuracy, and effectiveness in academic/professional settings
70	Adept: Uses generally accurate language in most settings; some limitations in flexibility are evident
60	Advanced: Displays competence in academic or professional settings
50	High Intermediate: Exhibits some competence in academic or professional settings; communication may break down in places
40	Intermediate: Demonstrates some ability to comprehend and articulate complex ideas and arguments typical of academic or professional settings
30	High Beginner: Expresses basic ideas about familiar topics in routine settings
10–20	Low Beginner: Communicates with limited ability

Part 1: Speaking

In Part 1, there are three Speaking tasks, each on a different topic:

- ✔ Task 1 & 2: Test takers will discuss various aspects of educational plans or experiences and discuss other topics applicable to academic study.
- ✔ Task 3: Test takers will describe and draw conclusions about a visual image, such as a chart or graph.

Test takers' responses to Part 1 speaking questions are evaluated on the content of their response, the accuracy of their language, and their ability to reference details in a visual image (if present).

Part 2: Integrated Reading

In Part 2, there are two types of reading passages, each followed by a set of comprehension questions. The passages resemble the types of texts students might encounter during their first year at a college or university. The comprehension questions assess test takers' abilities to:

- ✔ Comprehend the general meaning of the passage
- ✔ Identify specific information in the passage
- ✔ Make inferences based on information in the passage

In the final task of Part 2, test takers respond to one speaking question that is answered using material from one of the reading passages.

Test takers' responses to the reading comprehension questions are scored as correct or incorrect. Test takers' spoken responses are evaluated on the content of their response, the accuracy of their language, and their use of source material.

Part 3: Integrated Listening

In Part 3, there are two types of listening passages, each followed by a set of comprehension questions. The content of the listening passages resemble the types of lectures, orientation activities, or academic event announcements students might encounter during their first year at a college or university. The comprehension questions assess test takers' abilities to:

- ✔ Comprehend the general meaning of the passage
- ✔ Identify specific information in the passage
- ✔ Make inferences based on information in the passage

In the final task of Part 3, test takers respond to one speaking question that is answered using material from one of the listening passages.

Test takers' responses to the listening comprehension questions are scored as correct or incorrect. Test takers' spoken responses are evaluated on the content of their response, the accuracy of their language, and their use of source material.

Part 4: Academic Unit A

There are three sections in Part 4, each of which is about an aspect of the same academic topic:

- ✔ One reading passage with comprehension questions
- ✔ One listening passage with comprehension questions
- ✔ One writing question requiring an extended response, using material from both the reading passage and the listening passage.

Part 5: Academic Unit B

There are three sections in Part 5, each of which is about an aspect of the same academic topic. The topic in Part 5 is different than the topic test takers encounter in Part 4.

- ✔ One reading passage with comprehension questions
- ✔ One listening passage with comprehension questions
- ✔ One writing question requiring a short response, using material from the reading passage or the listening passage.

In Part 4 and Part 5, test takers' responses to the reading and listening comprehension questions are scored as correct or incorrect. Test takers' written responses are evaluated on the content of their language, the accuracy of their language, and their use of source materials.

CAEL CE Score Guidance

We recommend that organizations where the primary language is English consider the CAEL CE overall band scores in the table below when setting their English language admission standards.

CAEL CE Score	Linguistically demanding academic programs	Linguistically less demanding academic programs	Linguistically demanding vocational programs	Linguistically less demanding vocational programs
80–90	Acceptable	Acceptable	Acceptable	Acceptable
70	Probably acceptable	Acceptable	Acceptable	Acceptable
60	English needs improvement	Probably acceptable	Acceptable	Acceptable
50	English needs improvement	English needs improvement	Probably acceptable	Acceptable
40	English needs improvement	English needs improvement	English needs improvement	Probably acceptable

Note that these recommended standards vary based on the nature of the programs for which the candidate is being admitted. If the program calls for a high degree of group work, discussion, and oral presentation as part of its curriculum, receiving institutions might wish to require in addition a minimum band score on the speaking component of the test.

CAEL Scores and Identity Verification System

The CAEL Scores and Identity Verification System (SIVS) is a simple and fast way for organizations to verify an individual's CAEL CE scores and identity, and provides administrative personnel with an effective tool for score verification.

Benefits of CAEL SIVS

- The CAEL SIVS allows for organizations to directly verify an individual's scores with the CAEL Office, without relying on mailed, paper score reports.
- In addition, the CAEL SIVS also allows organizations to subscribe to the Bulk Scores Download feature, which allows for organizations to automatically receive scores to that institution.

Sample Score Report

The right side of the screenshot shows a sample "OFFICIAL SCORE REPORT" for Jane Smith. It includes a photo of the test taker and a table of sub-test results.

Sub-test Results		Overall Band Score
Reading	60	60
Listening	70	The overall score is calculated by taking the average of the total of the scores from the four sub-tests. Overall scores are reported to the nearest band.

CAEL CE measures academic language proficiency. What is academic language proficiency?

Post-secondary success requires students to make sense of complex academic content, appropriately articulate their understanding of that content, and negotiate multiple academic and social interactions on campus. The language skills, knowledge, and abilities students need to be successful in college and university is academic language proficiency. A student who has academic language proficiency can understand academic material that is read and heard in English, and can write and speak about this material in an academic style.

As an academic English language proficiency test, CAEL CE:

- ✔ Measures a test taker's ability to read, write, listen, and speak in English;
- ✔ Assesses whether a test taker has acquired the ability to use English in typical post-secondary classroom situations; and
- ✔ Evaluates a test taker's ability to use English according to an ability scale that is related to actual language use in academic contexts.

CAEL CE is an integrated skills test. What does that mean?

Post-secondary success requires students to use many language skills at the same time – students read a book and make an oral presentation, or students listen to a lecture and write down the questions they may have. CAEL CE assesses a test taker's language ability in a way that mirrors the situations students encounter during their first year of post-secondary education. The integrated task design in CAEL CE allows for the interaction of receptive (listening and reading) and productive (speaking and writing) skills, creating a more realistic testing environment.

CAEL CE tasks include:

- ✔ Speaking for academic purposes to relay information and show understanding;
- ✔ Reading academic texts of different lengths in order to synthesize or paraphrase key ideas and selectively applying information from the readings;
- ✔ Listening to academic mini-lectures and transferring or applying information on a topic introduced by the lecture; and,
- ✔ Incorporating what has been learned from readings and mini-lectures in formal, opinion-based responses to academic speaking and writing tasks.

The integrated speaking and writing tasks also provides test takers with common content on which to base their spoken or written responses. By providing common sources, CAEL CE ensures that all test takers, regardless of their background knowledge, have access to the information needed to succeed on the speaking and writing tasks. Test takers do no need and do not benefit from background knowledge of the topics covered in the test.
